Help us update your details

Click on the E-store - your home anywhere within India, through 'Campus Mall'. You can purchase SPJIMR merchandise online and have the products delivered to your address. This is a great way to support the institute while also enjoying some branded items.

Dr. Varun Nagaraj, Dean designate of SPJIMR addressed students, faculty and staff on the evening of 23rd January 2021, Saturday. Through various stories from the life of Jamsetji Tata, Mr. Bhat brought out the values, characteristics and pioneering spirit that made Jamsetji Tata a truly great leader.

Mr. Harish Bhat, Brand Custodian, Tata Sons and Author of Tata Log was the tribute to former SPJIMR the late Dr. M. L Shrikant's life and leadership. The session was opened with former SPJIMR Professor Anil Kulkarni paying a tribute to Dr. M. L Shrikant's life and leadership. Mr. Bhat, with his extensive knowledge and experience, shed light on the values that Jamsetji Tata embodied, which are still relevant today.

In his speech, Mr. Bhat highlighted the values that Jamsetji Tata upheld, which included hard work, dedication, and a strong sense of social responsibility. He also spoke about how these values are reflected in the work of Tata Sons today, and how they continue to inspire and guide the company. Mr. Bhat's insights provided a glimpse into the man behind the legend, giving the audience a deeper understanding of the values that defined his life.

Mr. Bhat's speech was well-received by the audience, who were inspired by his words and his passion for the Tata way of doing things. The session ended with a round of applause, as the audience acknowledged the significance of the values that Jamsetji Tata embodied.

Ms. Talwar reflects on her successful career and talks about the iconic brand Ruppal Walia Sharma

In a recent episode of ThoughtCast - the SPJIMR Podcast, Ms. Sangeeta Talwar, Managing Partner, Flyvision Consulting and a thought-leader in the marketing space, shared her insights on the evolution of the marketing industry and her experiences in it. Ms. Talwar is known for her expertise in brand strategy and has worked with some of the biggest names in the industry. She talked about her journey from working in small agencies to running her own successful consultancy.

She shared her views on how technology has transformed the way businesses are marketed and how it has changed the role of marketers. She also talked about the importance of authentic storytelling and the role of social media in creating brand awareness. Ms. Talwar's insights are valuable for anyone interested in the marketing space, and her experience and knowledge make her a great resource for professionals looking to grow in this field.

In a recent episode of the SPJIMR Alumni Podcast, Girish Wagh (PGDM, Class of 1997) shared his experience as the Executive Director for Bhavan’s SPJIMR. Girish spoke about his journey in the field of education and the impact of SPJIMR on his career. He also talked about the challenges he faced and the strategies he used to overcome them.

Girish Wagh is a seasoned professional with over 25 years of experience in the education sector. He has worked with various reputed institutions and has played a key role in shaping their growth. Girish's insights into the field of education are valuable for anyone interested in the field.

He said "values based growth is sustainable. It does not take shortcuts nor does it try for short term growth at the expense of long term societal expense. Not only is it good for business, it is also good for society and good for the environment. It is good for the customer, and good for the employee. It is good for the whole system. It builds trust and dignity. It is good for the culture. It is good for the country, and it is good for the world."