

Milind Tandel

Overview: Milind Tandel is an industry professional with over two and half decades of experience in Supply Chain Management, Operations, and Supplier Risk Management. He has led various strategic leadership roles in setting up and running large offshore supplier services hub operations within India and overseas. He is a technology enthusiast and has a keen interest in exploring the impact of emerging technologies on operations and labour productivity. Outside of work, Milind is a DEI ally and works extensively through various domestic and international collaborative forums promoting and advancing the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion agenda. He is a nature lover, likes listening to music (various forms), is a fitness buff and a travel explorer.

Area of specialisation:

Strategy

Year of joining the programme:

2024 (Part-Time)

Email:

fpm24.milind@spjimr.org

Educational background:

Masters of Business Administration from IIM Raipur (General Administration 2021-23)
Bachelor of Engineering (Electronics) from Mumbai University (1992-96)

Research interest:

Researching on the impact of emerging technologies on firms' valuation, its business strategy and its labour productivity.

Professional appointments/ Work experience:

He is currently working with JP Morgan Services India Private Limited as offshore Lead for Third Party Payment Operations across India, Philippines and Poland. He has led Sourcing and Procurement organisation within India in his past roles with JP Morgan.

He has held similar positions previously with organisations such as Barclays Bank PLC, HSBC Ltd and CMC Limited.

Publications and working papers:

Aspiring for during the FPM journey with SPJIMR

Conference presentations:

Aspiring for during the FPM journey with SPJIMR

Brown Bag/ Research Seminar presentations:

Aspiring for during the FPM journey with SPJIMR

Achievements:

Received the Best Buyer Award across APAC in 2008 while working with HSBC.

Led the setup of the Sourcing and Procurement offshore hub operations in India for JP Morgan in 2015.

Was part of the winning team for the Asia Pacific CEO Award twice in JP Morgan (2020 and 2021).

Successfully institutionalised the Intelligent Automation program across Global Supplier Services for JP Morgan from India in 2019.